Image Title
(2-5 words)

Story
(50-70 words)
Focus on one important aspect other people may find interesting. Explain the image first (the specifics) then why your work is important (the general).

Collaborators

Please give the names and roles of anyone else who was involved in the creation of the submitted image.

Image Owner

Are you the owner of the image? Please indicate Yes or No, as appropriate.

If not, please provide information including the email address of the image owner. You must also provide written confirmation that you are allowed to use the image. Please attach that separately.

Funding

If the activity/research you portray in your image is funded by a government or recognized grant-awarding body or institution, please state:

I am self-funded.

Copyright, Liability and Consent

By entering this competition, you consent to the University of Strathclyde retaining the right to use all submitted entries (including those not chosen to be reproduced) in materials without requiring further permission from you. The materials can include, but are not limited to, the exhibitions (printed and online), the website and print materials. As an entrant you will retain all intellectual property, including copyright, but as such, you hereby grant to the University of Strathclyde a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence in perpetuity to reproduce works based on your submission without any obligation to compensate you. The owner of the work will be appropriately acknowledged (e.g. © 2016 Name).

The University will not be liable in any way for an entry. It is your responsibility to:

- Secure permission from anyone in your photograph by ensuring that you have written permission to use the image if you are not the image owner.
- Ensure that there are no infringements of third party intellectual property rights. You must either wholly own the image, or obtain the written authority of contributors both to submit the image to this competition and to grant the University of Strathclyde a non-exclusive, royalty-free licence to reproduce works based on your submission.

By signing below, the image owner acknowledges his/her agreement to the terms above.
